

Portion: Ki Tetse (When You Go Out)
Devarim (Deuteronomy 24:1-25:19)

Deuteronomy 24:1-22

1 When a man takes a wife and shall marry her, then it shall be, if she finds no favour in his eyes because he has found a matter of uncoveredness in her, and he shall write her a certificate of divorce, and put it in her hand, and send her out of his house,

2 and if she left his house and went and became another man's wife,

3 and the latter husband shall hate her and write her a certificate of divorce, and put it in her hand, and send her out of his house, or when the latter husband dies who took her to be his wife,

4 then her former husband who sent her away is not allowed to take her back to be his wife after she has been defiled, for that would be an abomination before יהוה. And do not bring sin on the land which יהוה your Elohim is giving you as an inheritance.

5 "When a man has taken a new wife, let him not go out into the army nor let any matter be imposed upon him. He shall be exempt one year for the sake of his home, to rejoice with his wife whom he has taken.

6 "No one takes in pledge the lower or the upper millstone, for he would be taking a life in pledge.

7 "When a man is found kidnapping any of his brothers of the children of Yisra'el, and treats him harshly or sells him, then that kidnapper shall die. Thus you shall purge the evil from your midst.

8 "Take heed, in an outbreak of leprosy, to diligently guard and do according to all that the priests, the Lēwites, teach you. As I have commanded them, so you shall guard to do.

9 "Remember what יהוה your Elohim did to Miryam on the way when you came out of Mitsrayim.

10 "When you lend your brother a loan, do not go into his house to get his pledge.

11 "Stand outside, and let the man to whom you lend bring the pledge out to you.

12 "And if the man is poor, do not sleep with his pledge.

13 "By all means return the pledge to him at sundown, and he shall sleep in his own garment, and shall bless you. And it shall be righteousness to you before יהוה your Elohim.

14 "Do not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, of your brothers or of your strangers who are in your land within your gates.

15 "Give him his wages on the same day, and do not let the sun go down on it, for he is poor and lifts up his being to it, so that he does not cry out against you to יהוה, and it shall be sin in you.

16 "Fathers are not put to death for their children, and children are not put to death for their fathers, each is to die for his own sin.

17 "Do not twist the right-ruling of a stranger or the fatherless, nor take the garment of a widow.

18 "But you shall remember that you were a slave in Mitsrayim, and that יהוה your Elohim ransomed you from there. Therefore I am commanding you to do this word.

19 "When you reap your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, do not go back to get it. Let it be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow, so that יהוה your Elohim might bless you in all the work of your hands.

20 "When you beat your olive trees, do not examine the branch behind you. Let it be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

21 "When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, do not glean behind you. Let it be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

22 "And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Mitsrayim. Therefore I am commanding you to do this word.

Deuteronomy 25:1-19

1 "When there is a dispute between men, then they shall come unto judgment, and they shall be judged, and the righteous declared righteous and the wrongdoer declared wrong.

2 "And it shall be, if the wrongdoer is to be struck, that the judge shall cause him to lie down and be struck in his presence with the number of blows according to his wrong.

3 "Forty strikes he gives him but no more, lest he strike him with many more blows than these, and your brother be degraded before your eyes.

4 "Do not muzzle an ox while it is threshing.

5 "When brothers dwell together, and one of them has died, and has no son, the widow of the dead man shall not become a stranger's outside. Her husband's brother does go in to her, and shall take her as his wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her.

6 "And it shall be that the first-born son which she bears does rise up for the name of his dead brother, so that his name is not blotted out of Yisra'el.

7 But if the man does not desire to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate to the elders, and say, 'My husband's brother refuses to raise up a name to his brother in Yisra'el, he does not agree to perform the duty of my husband's brother.' "

8 "The elders of his city shall then call him and speak to him, and he shall stand and say, 'I have no desire to take her,'

9 then his brother's wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, and remove his sandal from his foot, and shall spit in his face, and answer and say, 'Thus it is done to the man who does not build up his brother's house.'

10 And in Yisra'el his name shall be called, 'The house of him who had his sandal removed.'

11 "When men fight with one another, a man and his brother, and the wife of one shall draw near to rescue her husband from the hand of the one striking him, and shall put out her hand and take hold of him by the genitals, 12 then you shall cut off her hand - your eye does not pardon.

13 "You shall not have in your bag differing weights, a heavy and a light.

14 "You shall not have in your house differing measures, a large and a small.

15 "You shall have a perfect and right weight, a perfect and right measure, so that they prolong your days on the soil which יהוה your Elohim is giving you. 16 "For all who do these, and all who do unrighteously, are an abomination to יהוה your Elohim. 17 Remember what Amalēq did to you on the way as you were coming out of Mitsrayim," 18 how he met you on the way and attacked your back, all the feeble ones in your rear, when you were tired and weary. And he did not fear Elohim. 19 "Therefore it shall be, when יהוה your Elohim has given you rest from your enemies all around, in the land which יהוה your Elohim is giving you to possess as an inheritance, that you blot out the remembrance of Amalēq from under the heavens. Do not forget!
