

Second Writings Ma`asei (Acts 1:21-2:31)

Acts 1:21-26

21 It is therefore necessary that of the men who have been with us all the time that the Master יהושע went in and out among us,"
22 beginning from the immersion of Yoḥanan to that day when He was taken up from us, that one of these should become a witness with us of His resurrection."
23 And they put forward two: Yosēph called Barsabba, who was also called Justus, and Mattithyahu.
24 And praying they said, "You, יהוה, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two You have chosen
25 to receive the share in this service and office of the emissary from which Yehudāh by transgression fell, to go to his own place."
26 And they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Mattithyahu. And he was numbered with the eleven emissaries.

Acts 2:1-31

1 And when the Day of the Festival of Shabu'ot had come, they were all with one mind in one place.
2 And suddenly there came a sound from the heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.
3 And there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and settled on each one of them.
4 And they were all filled with the Set-apart Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them to speak.
5 Now in Yerushalayim there were dwelling Yehudim, dedicated men from every nation under the heaven.
6 And when this sound came to be, the crowd came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language.
7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying to each other, "Look, are not all these who speak Galileans?
8 "And how do we hear, each one in our own language in which we were born?
9 Parthians and Medes and Ėylamites, and those dwelling in Aram Naharayim, both Yehudāh and Kappadokia, Pontos and Asia,"
10 both Phrygia and Pamphulia, Mitsrayim and the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Yehudim and converts,
11 Cretans and Arabs, we hear them speaking in our own tongues the great deeds of Elohim.
12 And they were all amazed, and were puzzled, saying to each other, "What does this mean?"

13 And others mocking said, "They have been filled with sweet wine."

14 But Kěpha, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and said to them, "Men of Yehudāh and all those dwelling in Yerushalayim, let this be known to you, and listen closely to my words.

15 "For these men are not drunk, as you imagine, since it is only the third hour of the day.

16 But this is what was spoken by the prophet Yo'ēl:

17 'And it shall be in the last days, says Elohim, that I shall pour out of My Spirit on all flesh. And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams,

18 and also on My male servants and on My female servants I shall pour out My Spirit in those days, and they shall prophesy.

19 'And I shall show wonders in the heaven above and signs in the earth beneath: blood and fire and vapour of smoke.

20 'The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and splendid day of יהוה.

21 'And it shall be that everyone who calls on the Name of יהוה shall be saved.'

22 "Men of Yisra'ēl, hear these words: יהושע of Natsareth, a Man from Elohim, having been pointed out to you by mighty works, and wonders, and signs which Elohim did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know,

23 this One, given up by the set purpose and foreknowledge of Elohim, you have impaled and put to death through the hands of lawless men -

24 "Him Elohim raised up, having loosed the pangs of death, because it was impossible that He could be held in its grip.

25 "For Dawid says concerning Him, 'I saw יהוה before me continually, because He is at my right hand, in order that I should not be shaken.

26 'For this reason my heart rejoiced, and my tongue was glad, and now my flesh shall also rest in expectation,

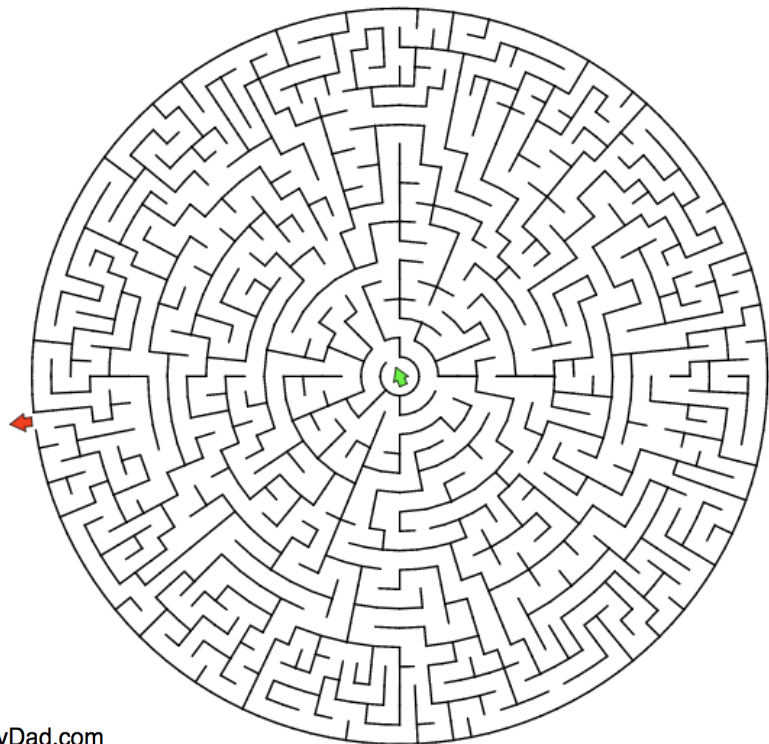

27 because You shall not leave my being in She'ol, nor shall You give Your Lovingly-committed One to see corruption.

28 'You have made known to me the ways of life, You shall fill me with joy in Your presence.'

29 Men and brothers, let me speak boldly to you of the ancestor Dawid, that he died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

30 "Being a prophet, then, and knowing that Elohim had sworn with an oath to him: of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, to raise up the Messiah to sit on his throne,

31 foreseeing this he spoke concerning the resurrection of the Messiah, that His being was neither left in She'ol, nor did His flesh see corruption.
