

Second Writings Ma`asei (Acts 20:24-21:22)

Acts 20:24-38

24 "But I do not count my life of any value to me, so that I might accomplish my mission with joy, and the service which I received from the Master יהושע, to bear witness to the Good News of the favour of Elohim.

25 "And now see, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the reign of Elohim, shall see my face no more.

26 "Therefore I witness to you this day that I am clear from the blood of all.

27 "For I kept not back from declaring to you all the counsel of Elohim.

28 "Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Set-apart Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of Elohim which He has purchased with His own blood.

29 "For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves shall come in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 "Also from among yourselves men shall arise, speaking distorted teachings, to draw away the taught ones after themselves.

31 "Therefore watch, remembering that for three years, night and day, I did not cease to warn each one with tears.

32 "And now, brothers, I commit you to Elohim and to the word of His favour, which is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among all those having been set apart.

33 "I have coveted no one's silver or gold or garments.

34 "And you yourselves know that these hands supplied my needs, and for those who were with me.

35 "All this I did show you, by labouring like this, that you ought to help the weak. And remember the words of the Master יהושע, that He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "

36 And having said this, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

37 And there was much weeping among them all, and falling on Sha'ul's neck, they kissed him,

38 distressed most of all because of the word which he had said, that they would see his face no more. And they went with him to the ship.

Acts 21:1-22

1 And it came to be, when we had torn ourselves away from them, and had set sail, we ran a straight course and came to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

2 And having found a ship passing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.

3 And having sighted Cyprus, and having passed it on the left, we sailed to Suria, and landed at Tsor, for the ship was to unload her cargo there.

4 And having found taught ones, we remained there seven days. And they told Sha'ul through the Spirit not to go up to Yerushalayim.

5 And when it came to be that our days there were ended, we left and went on, all of them accompanying us, with wives and children, till we were out of the city. And kneeling down on the beach, we prayed.

6 And having embraced one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned to their homes.

7 And when we had completed our voyage from Tsor, we came to Ptolemais. And having greeted the brothers we stayed with them one day.

8 And on the next day we left and came to Caesarea, and went into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him.

9 Now this one had four maiden daughters who prophesied.

10 And as we were staying many days, a certain prophet named Ḥaḡab came down from Yehudah,

11 and having come to us, he took the girdle of Sha'ul, bound his own hands and feet, and said, "Thus says the Set-apart Spirit, 'Thus shall the Yehudim at Yerushalayim bind the man who owns this girdle, and deliver him into the hands of the nations.' "

12 And when we heard this, both we and those from that place begged him not to go up to Yerushalayim.

13 And Sha'ul answered, "What do you mean by weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Yerushalayim for the Name of the Master יהושע."

14 And as he could not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "Let the desire of the Master be done."

15 And after those days, having made ready, we went up to Yerushalayim.

16 And also some of the taught ones from Caesarea went with us and brought with them one, Mnason of Cyprus, an early taught one, with whom we were to lodge.

17 And when we had arrived in Yerushalayim, the brothers received us gladly.

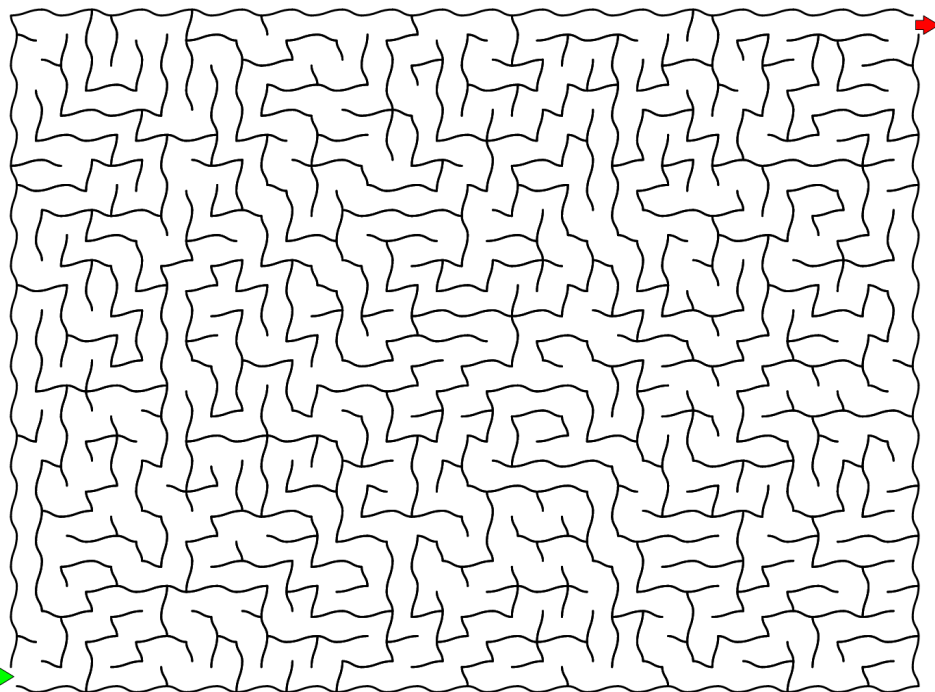

18 And on the following day Sha'ul went in with us to Ya'aqob, and all the elders came.

19 And having greeted them, he was relating one by one what Elohim had done among the nations through his service.

20 And when they heard it, they praised the Master. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Yehudim there are who have believed, and all are ardent for the Torah, 21 "But they have been informed about you that you teach all the Yehudim who are among the nations to forsake Mosheh, saying not to circumcise the children nor to walk according to the practices.

22 "What then is it? They shall certainly hear that you have come.
