

Second Writings Qorintiyim Aleph (1 Corinthians 12:7-14:4)

1 Corinthians 12:7-31

7 And to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for profiting,

8 for to one is given a word of wisdom through the Spirit, and to another a word of knowledge according to the same Spirit,

9 and to another belief by the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healing by the same Spirit,

10 and to another operations of powers, and to another prophecy, and to another discerning of spirits, and to another kinds of tongues, and to another interpretation of tongues.

11 But one and the same Spirit works all these, distributing to each one individually as He intends.

12 For as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is the Messiah.

13 For indeed by one Spirit we were all immersed into one body, whether Yehudim or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For indeed the body is not one member but many.

15 If the foot says, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," does it therefore not belong to the body?

16 And if the ear says, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," does it therefore not belong to the body?

17 If all the body was an eye, where would be the hearing? If all hearing, where would be the smelling?

18 But now Elohim has set the members, each one of them, in the body, even as He pleased.

19 And if they all had been one member, where would the body be?

20 And now, there are indeed many members, but one body.

21 And an eye is unable to say to the hand, "I have no need of you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

22 But much rather, those members of the body which are thought to be weaker are necessary.

23 And to those of the body which we think to be less respected, these we present greater respect. And our unseemly members have greater seemliness,

24 whereas our seemly members have no need. But Elohim blended together the body, having given greater respect to that member which lacks it,

25 that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same concern one for another.

26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is esteemed, all the members rejoice with it.

27 And you are a body of Messiah, and members individually.

28 And Elohim has appointed these in the assembly: firstly emissaries, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, ministrations, kinds of tongues.

29 Are all emissaries? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles?

30 Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

31 But earnestly seek the better gifts. And yet I show you a more excellent way.

1 Corinthians 13:1-13

1 If I speak with the tongues of men and of messengers, but do not have love, I have become as sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.

2 And if I have prophecy, and know all secrets and all knowledge, and if I have all belief, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am none at all.

3 And if I give out all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but do not have love, I am not profited at all.

4 Love is patient, is kind, love does not envy, love does not boast, is not puffed up,

5 does not behave indecently, does not seek its own, is not provoked, reckons not the evil,

6 does not rejoice over the unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth,

7 it covers all, believes all, expects all, endures all.

8 Love never fails. And whether there be prophecies, they shall be inactive; or tongues, they shall cease; or knowledge, it shall be inactive.

9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part shall be inactive.

11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I thought as a child, I reasoned as a child. But when I became a man, I did away with childish matters.

12 For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know, as I also have been known.

13 And now belief, expectation, and love remain - these three. But the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 14:1-4

1 Pursue love, and earnestly seek the spiritual gifts, but rather that you prophesy.

2 For he who is speaking in a tongue does not speak to men but to Elohim, for no one understands, but in the Spirit he speaks secrets.

3 But he who is prophesying speaks upbuilding and encouragement and comfort to men.

4 He who is speaking in a tongue builds up himself, but he who is prophesying builds up the assembly.
