

Second Writings Qorintiyim Aleph (1 Corinthians 7:36-9:18)

1 Corinthians 7:36-40

36 And if anyone thinks he is behaving improperly toward his maiden, if she is past the flower of her youth, and so it should be, let him do what he desires, he does not sin - let them marry.

37 But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, and has authority over his own desire, and has so decided in his heart to guard his own maiden, does well.

38 So then he who gives her in marriage does well, but he who does not give her in marriage does better.

39 A wife is bound by Torah as long as her husband lives, and if her husband dies, she is free to be married to whom she desires, only in the Master.

40 But she is better off if she remains as she is, according to my opinion. And I think I also have the Spirit of Elohim.

1 Corinthians 8:1-13

1 And concerning food offered to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

2 If anyone thinks that he knows somewhat, he does not yet know as he should know.

3 But if anyone loves Elohim, this one is known by Him.

4 So then, concerning the eating of food offered to idols, we know that an idol is no matter at all in the world, and that there is no other Elohim but one.

5 For even if there are so-called mighty ones, whether in heaven or on earth - as there are many mighty ones and many masters -

6 for us there is one Elohim, the Father, from whom all came and for whom we live, and one Master יהושע Messiah, through whom all came and through whom we live.

7 However, not all have this knowledge. But some, being aware of the idol, until now eat it as having been offered to an idol, so their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

8 But food does not commend us to Elohim, for we are none the better if we eat, nor any worse for not eating.

9 But look to it, lest somehow this right of yours becomes a stumbling-block to those who are weak.

10 For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating in an idol's place, shall not his conscience, if he is weak, be built up to eat food offered to idols?

11 So this weak brother, for whom Messiah died, shall perish through your knowledge!

12 Now sinning in this way against the brothers, and wounding their weak conscience, you sin against Messiah.

13 Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble, I am never again going to eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble.

1 Corinthians 9:1-18

1 Am I not an emissary? Am I not free? Have I not seen יהושע Messiah our Master? Are you not my work in the Master?

2 If to others I am not an emissary, I certainly am to you. For you are the seal of my office of the emissary in the Master.

3 My defence to those who examine me is this:

4 Do we not have a right to eat and drink?

5 Do we not have a right to take along a sister - a wife - as do also the other emissaries, and the brothers of the Master, and Kěpha?

6 Or do only Barnaba and I have no right to refrain from working?

7 Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not feed on the milk of the flock?

8 Do I say this as a man? Or does not the Torah say the same too?

9 For it has been written in the Torah of Mosheh, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." Is it about oxen Elohim is concerned?

10 Or does He say it because of us all? For this was written because of us, that he who ploughs should plough in expectation, and the thresher in expectation of sharing.

11 If we have sown spiritual seed among you, is it too much if we reap material goods from you?

12 If others share authority over you, should not rather we? But we have not used this authority, but we put up with all, lest we hinder the Good News of Messiah.

13 Do you not know that those serving the Set-apart Place eat from the Set-apart Place, and those attending at the slaughter-place have their share of the offerings of the slaughter-place?

14 So also the Master instituted that those announcing the Good News should live from the Good News.

15 But I have used none of these, nor have I written this that it should be done so to me.

For it would be better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting empty.

16 For if I bring the Good News, it is no boasting for me, for necessity is laid on me, and it is woe to me if I do not bring the Good News!

17 For if I do this voluntarily I have a reward, but if not voluntarily, I am entrusted with a management.

18 What then is my reward? That in bringing the Good News, I should offer the Good News of Messiah without cost, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News.
