

Second Writings Romiyim (Romans 2:7-3:20)

Romans 2:7-29

7 everlasting life to those who by persistence in good work seek for esteem, and respect, and incorruptibility;

8 but wrath and displeasure to those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness;

9 affliction and distress on every human being working what is evil, of the Yehudi first, and also of the Greek;

10 but esteem, respect, and peace to everyone working what is good, to the Yehudi first and also to the Greek.

11 For there is no partiality with Elohim.

12 For as many as sinned without Torah shall also perish without Torah, and as many as sinned in the Torah shall be judged by the Torah.

13 For not the hearers of the Torah are righteous in the sight of Elohim, but the doers of the Torah shall be declared right.

14 For when nations, who do not have the Torah, by nature do what is in the Torah, although not having the Torah, they are a torah to themselves,

15 who show the work of the Torah written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or even excusing,

16 in the day when Elohim shall judge the secrets of men through יהושע Messiah, according to my Good News.

17 See, you are called a Yehudi, and rest on the Torah, and make your boast in Elohim,

18 and know the desire of Elohim, and approve what is superior, being instructed out of the Torah,

19 and are trusting that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

20 an instructor of foolish ones, a teacher of babes, having the form of knowledge and of the truth in the Torah.

21 You, then, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who proclaim that a man should not steal, do you steal?

22 You who say, "Do not commit adultery," do you commit adultery? You who abominate idols, do you rob temples?

23 You who make your boast in the Torah, through the transgression of the Torah do you disrespect Elohim?

24 For "The Name of Elohim is blasphemed among the nations because of you," as it has been written.

25 For circumcision indeed profits if you practise the Torah, but if you are a transgressor of the Torah, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

26 So, if an uncircumcised one watches over the righteousnesses of the Torah, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned as circumcision?

27 And the uncircumcised by nature, who perfects the Torah, shall judge you who notwithstanding letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the Torah!

28 For he is not a Yehudi who is so outwardly, neither is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh.

29 But a Yehudi is he who is so inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in Spirit, not literally, whose praise is not from men but from Elohim.

Romans 3:1-20

1 What then is the advantage of the Yehudi, or what is the value of the circumcision?

2 Much in every way! Because firstly indeed, that they were entrusted with the Words of Elohim.

3 For what if some did not believe? Shall their unbelief nullify the trustworthiness of Elohim?

4 Let it not be! But let Elohim be true, and every man a liar, as it has been written, "That You should be declared right in Your words, and prevail in Your judging."

5 But if our unrighteousness establishes the righteousness of Elohim, what shall we say? Is Elohim unrighteous who is inflicting wrath? I speak as a man.

6 Let it not be! Otherwise how shall Elohim judge the world?

7 For if the truth of Elohim has increased through my lie, to His esteem, why am I also still judged as a sinner?

8 And why not say, "Let us do evil so that the good might come"? - as we are wrongly accused and as some claim that we say. Their judgment is in the right.

9 What then? Are we better than they? Not at all, for we have previously accused both Yehudim and Greeks that they are all under sin.

10 As it has been written, "There is none righteous, no, not one!

11 "There is no one who is understanding, there is none who is seeking Elohim.

12 "They all have turned aside, they have together become worthless. There is none who does good, no, not one."

13 "Their throat is an open tomb, with their tongues they have deceived," "The poison of adders is under their lips,"

14 "Whose mouth is filled with cursing and bitterness."

15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood,

16 ruin and wretchedness are in their ways,

17 and the way of peace they have not known."

18 "There is no fear of Elohim before their eyes."

19 And we know that whatever the Torah says, it says to those who are in the Torah, so that every mouth might be stopped, and all the world come under judgment before Elohim.

20 Therefore by works of Torah no flesh shall be declared right before Him, for by the Torah is the knowledge of sin.
