

Second Writings
Tas` Ioniqim Bět/Timotiyos Aleph
(2 Thessalonians 3:10 - 1 Timothy 2:10)

2 Thessalonians 3:10-18

10 For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: If anyone does not wish to work, neither let him eat.

11 For we hear of some among you walking disorderly, not working at all, but are busybodies.

12 But we command and urge such, through our Master יהושע Messiah, to settle down, work and eat their own bread.

13 And you, brothers, do not grow weary in doing good.

14 And if anyone does not obey our word in this letter, note that one, and do not keep company with him, so that he is put to shame.

15 However, do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 And the Master of peace Himself give you peace always in every way. The Master be with you all.

17 The greeting of Sha'ul with my own hand, which is a sign in every letter, thus I write.

18 The favour of our Master יהושע Messiah be with you all. Aměn.

1 Timothy 1:1-20

1 Sha'ul, an emissary of יהושע Messiah, according to a command of Elohim our Saviour, and of the Master יהושע Messiah, our expectation,

2 to Timotiyos, a genuine child in the belief: Favour, compassion, peace from Elohim our Father and יהושע Messiah our Master.

3 As I appealed to you when I went into Makedonia, to remain in Ephesos, in order to command some not to teach differently,

4 nor to pay attention to fables and endless genealogies, which cause disputes rather than an administration of Elohim which is in belief.

5 Now the goal of this command is love from a clean heart, from a good conscience and a sincere belief,

6 which some, having missed the goal, turned aside to senseless talk,

7 wishing to be teachers of Torah, understanding neither what they say nor concerning what they strongly affirm.

8 And we know that the Torah is good if one uses it legitimately,

9 knowing this: that Torah is not laid down for a righteous being, but for the lawless and unruly, for the wicked and for sinners, for the wrong-doers and profane, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers,

10 for those who whore, for sodomites, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and for whatever else that is contrary to sound teaching,

11 according to the esteemed Good News of the blessed Elohim which was entrusted to me.

12 And I thank Messiah יהושע our Master who empowered me, because He counted me trustworthy, putting me into service,
13 me, although I was formerly a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and an insulter. But compassion was shown me because being ignorant I did it in unbelief.
14 And the favour of our Master was exceedingly increased, with belief and love which are in Messiah יהושע.
15 Trustworthy is the word and worthy of all acceptance, that Messiah יהושע came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am foremost.
16 But because of this I received compassion, so that in me first, יהושע Messiah might display all patience, as an example to those who are going to believe on Him for everlasting life.
17 Now to the Sovereign of the ages, incorruptible, invisible, to Elohim who alone is wise, be respect and esteem forever and ever. Amĕn.
18 This charge I entrust to you, son Timotiyos, according to the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you might wage the good campaign,
19 having belief and a good conscience, which some have thrust aside and suffered shipwreck concerning their belief.
20 Among these are Humenaios and Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan, in order to be taught not to blaspheme.

1 Timothy 2:1-10

1 First of all, then, I urge that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made for all men,
2 for sovereigns and all those who are in authority, in order that we lead a calm and peaceable life in all reverence and seriousness.
3 For this is good and acceptable before Elohim our Saviour,
4 who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.
5 For there is one Elohim, and one Mediator between Elohim and men, the Man Messiah יהושע,
6 who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be witnessed in its own seasons,
7 for which I was appointed a proclaimer and an emissary - I am speaking the truth in Messiah and not lying - a teacher of the nations in belief and truth.
8 So I resolve that the men pray everywhere, lifting up hands that are set-apart, without wrath and disputing.
9 Likewise, that the women dress themselves becomingly, with decency and sensibleness, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly garments,
10 but with good works, which is becoming for women undertaking worship of Elohim.
