

Second Writings Timotiyos Aleph (1 Timothy 5:1-6:21)

1 Timothy 5:1-25

1 Do not rebuke an older man, but appeal to him as a father, younger ones as brothers,
2 elderly women as mothers, younger ones as sisters, in all cleanliness.

3 Respect widows who are truly widows.

4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to treat their own house reverently, and to repay their parents. For this is good and acceptable before Elohim.

5 And she who is truly a widow, and left alone, trusts in Elohim and continues in petitions and prayers night and day.

6 But she who is living in luxury is dead while she lives.

7 And command these matters, in order for them to be blameless.

8 And if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the belief and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Do not enrol a widow unless she is over sixty years of age, having been the wife of one man,

10 well reported for good works, if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the feet of the set-apart ones, if she has assisted the afflicted, if she has closely followed every good work.

11 But refuse the younger widows, for when they become headstrong against the Messiah, they desire to marry, 12 having guilt because they set aside their first belief.

13 Moreover, they learn to be idle, going about from house to house, and not only idle but also gossips and busybodies, speaking what is improper.

14 So I resolve that the younger widows marry, bear children, manage the house, giving no occasion to the adversary for reviling.

15 For already some have turned aside after Satan.

16 If any believing man or woman has widows, let such assist them, and do not let the assembly be burdened, in order to assist those who are truly widows.

17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double respect, especially those who labour in the word and teaching.

18 For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain," and, "The labourer is worthy of his wages."

19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder except from two or three witnesses.

20 Reprove those who are sinning, in the presence of all, so that the rest also might fear.

21 I earnestly witness before Elohim and the Master יהושע Messiah, and the chosen messengers, that you watch over these matters without prejudice, doing none at all with partiality.

22 Do not lay hands on anyone hastily, nor share in sins of others. Keep yourself clean.

23 No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent ailments.

24 The sins of some men are obvious, leading on to judgment, but those of some men follow later.

25 In the same way, the good works are obvious, while it is impossible to conceal those that are otherwise.

1 Timothy 6:1-21

1 Let those who are servants under a yoke regard their own masters worthy of all respect, lest the Name of Elohim and His teaching be blasphemed.

2 And those who have believing masters, let them not disregard them because they are brothers, but rather serve them because they are believing and beloved ones, those receiving of the good service in return. Teach and urge these matters.

3 If anyone teaches differently and does not agree to the sound words, those of our Master יהושע Messiah, and to the teaching which is according to reverence,

4 he is puffed up, understanding none at all, but is sick about questionings and verbal battles from which come envy, strife, slander, wicked suspicions,

5 worthless disputes of men of corrupt minds and deprived of the truth, who think that reverence is a means of gain - withdraw from such.

6 But reverence with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought naught into the world, and it is impossible to take any out.

8 When we have food and covering, we shall be satisfied with these.

9 But those wishing to be rich fall into trial and a snare, and into many foolish and injurious lusts which plunge men in ruin and destruction.

10 For the love of silver is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some, by longing for it, have strayed from the belief, and pierced themselves through with many pains.

11 But you, O man of Elohim, flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, reverence, belief, love, endurance, meekness.

12 Fight the good fight of the belief, lay hold on everlasting life, to which you were also called and have confessed the good confession before many witnesses.

13 In the sight of Elohim who gives life to all, and of Messiah יהושע who witnessed the good confession before Pontius Pilate, I charge you:

14 that you guard the command spotlessly, blamelessly, until the appearing of our Master יהושע Messiah,

15 which in His own seasons He shall reveal - the blessed and only Ruler, the Sovereign of sovereigns and Master of masters,

16 who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen or is able to see, to whom be respect and everlasting might. Amēn.

17 Charge those who are rich in this present age not to be high-minded, nor to trust in the uncertainty of riches, but in the living Elohim, who gives us richly all for enjoyment, 18 to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, ready to share, 19 storing up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, so that they lay hold on everlasting life. 20 O Timotiyos! Watch over that which has been entrusted to you, turning aside from the profane and empty babblings and contradictions of the falsely called 'knowledge,' 21 which some, having professed it, have missed the goal concerning the belief. Favour be with you. Aměn.
